JOHN W. KERN IS NOMINATED

Indiana Man Chosen for Bryan's Running Mate.

AMID RESOUNDING CHEERS

Nomination of Hoosier Candidate Is Made by Acclamation—Towne of New York and McNeill of Connecticut Withdraw.

Denver, July 11.—The Democratic national convention concluded its labors by the nomination of John W. Kern of Indiana for vice president, completing the ticket on which William Jennings Bryan was made the nominee for president.

The nomination of Kern was made by acclamation amid the resounding cheers of delegates and spectators. No ballot was necessary, as the tide of sentiment had set irresistibly toward the Indiana candidate, state after state registering their delegation in his favor, and all other candidates withdrawing before the universal demand for his nomination.

The convention, after adjourning at daylight with the nomination of Mr. Bryan, resumed its session at 1 p. m. with a powerful undercurrent already in motion toward the nomination of Kern for second place. On the call of states Indiana presented the name of Kern; Colorado, through ex-Governor Thomas, placed in nomination Charles A. Towne of New York; Connecticut presented Archibald McNeill, and Georgia Clark Howell. The names of Judge George Gray of Delaware and John Mitchell of Illinois were not presented, owing to the positive requests of these gentlemen not to have their names go before the convention.

For a time it looked as though a ballot would be required. But the steady line of states which joined in seconding Kern's nomination soon made it apparent that the chances of all other candidates had been extinguished. Mr. Towne in person was the first candidate to recognize the decisive nature of the Kern movement, and in a ringing speech he withdrew his name from consideration and pledged his support to the ticket of Bryan and Kern. Withdrawals quickly followed from the supporters of Howell of Georgia and McNeill of Connecticut, leaving the Indiana candidate alone in the field. The withdrawal of the Connecticut candidate was accompanied by a motion that the nomination of Kern be made by acclamation. The motion was carried with a deafening shout, and the great assemblage broke into clamorous demonstration on the accomplishment of its work and the completion of the Democratic national ticket.

The nomination was made at 4:23 o'clock and the convention thereupon adjourned without date.

The Democratic national committee will assemble to complete its new organization and to select the chairman who will be the commander-in-chief of the Democratic forces in the campaign.

The throngs of delegates and spectators are scattering for their homes and every train is bearing away thousands from the eventful scenes of the Denver convention.

was a Virginian by birth, who removed to Shelby county, Indiana, in 1836, and lived there until 1846, when he moved to the northern county. John Kern's mother was Nancy Liggett and she and Dr. Kern were married in Warren county, Ohio. In 1854, when John was five years old, the family removed to Warren county, Iowa. From the time he went to Iowa until he was fifteen years old he did not see a railroad train. The family moved back to Howard county in 1855. In the early 60's while still in Iowa, Mrs. Kern died. Two children were left, John and his sister, who is now Mrs. Isaac Engle of Daleville, Va. John was educated in the district schools and he continued his education by attending the Indiana normal school of Kokomo, Ind., riding horseback ten miles each way every day. Later he taught school near Alto. He earned money to enter Ann Arbor, graduating from the law department of Michigan university in 1869. He immediately began practicing in Kokomo, Ind. He was "drafted" when he was twenty-one years old to make the race for the legislature in the Republican county of Howard, but was defeated. He was chosen city attorney for Kokomo for six terms over Republican aspirants. In 1884 he was elected reporter of the supreme court. Since then Indianapolis has been his home, where he has since practiced law. He has worked in every campaign, served the county in the legislature and was the leader of his party in the state senate. He was city attorney under the last two administrations of Mayor Thomas Taggart, from October, 1897, to October, 1901.

In 1900 he was nominated for governor, but was defeated. Before the St. Louis convention of four years ago Mr. Kern's name had been prominently mentioned among the vice presidential possibilities.

Mr. Kern has been president of the Commercial club and has always been conspicuous in all state and civic movements.

MRS. KERN SORRY.

Did Not Want to Have Her Husband Nominated.

Indianapolis, July 11.—Mrs. John W. Kern, wife of the nominee for vice president, was notified of the nomination of her husband at Denver. She was at her home, 1836 north Pennsylvania street, with her children.

"I had hoped," said she, "you would give me the good news that Mr. Kern had not been nominated. I, of course, appreciate the honor conferred upon Mr. Kern, but I cannot understand what conditions at Denver have arisen that would cause him to have accepted the nomination. Mr. Kern has injured his health in past campaigns by his activity and as he means vastly more to me than any political honors, I am sincerely sorry, although I suppose I should not say so."

INDIANAPOLIS DEMOCRATS.

Express Enthusiasm Over Nomination of Kern.

Indianapolis, July 11.—Flags, banners, fireworks, cheers and a big brass band combined to express in some degree the enthusiasm of Indianapolis Democrats over the nomination of John W. Kern for the vice presidency of the United States on the Democratic ticket.

The news of his nomination was still hot from the wires when members of the Indiana Democratic club began arrangements for a night demonstration, which should properly celebrate the honor received by the Indiana man. At 8 o'clock Monument Place, near the quarters of the club, was filled with a cheering throng. The Indianapolis military band was there playing all sorts of patriotic and enlivening melodies. A few minutes later about 500 howling Democrats swung into line behind the band and began a parade which had the real flavor of election time.

There were all sorts of banners, flags waved from every hand and cheers rolled from every throat.

ATTORNEY UNDER ARREST

Prominent Illinois Lawyer Charged With Counterfeiting.

Danville, Ill., July 11.—Charles E. Brown, thirty-five years old, an attorney, prominent here socially and professionally, was arrested by secret service agents on the charge of counterfeiting and later held in bonds of $5,000.

In a secret desk in the cellar of Brown's home the government agents found what they say is the most complete counterfeiting outfit they have ever seen. It was ready for the manufacture of $5 gold pieces, silver half-dollars, quarters, dimes and nickels.

PLEASES MR. BRYAN

Nomination of Kern Satisfactory to Nebraskan.

HAS BEEN VERY BUSY MAN

Democratic Presidential Nominee Has Averaged But Three Hours' Sleep Out of Twenty-four for the Past Four Days—Satisfied With Platform.

Lincoln, Neb., July 11.—William Jennings Bryan, for the third time the nominee of the Democratic party for president, after four days and nights of strenuous endeavor, which have brought him a running mate and a platform, over both of which he is enthusiastic, retired to dream of Democratic success next November.

That is, his dreams will be thus, if they follow his belief, but it was by no means certain that exhausted nature would allow even so pleasant an encroachment on his slumbers. Since Tuesday, when the convention opened, Mr. Bryan has been busy and probably busier than any man in Denver, if not in the country. It is doubtful, that if in the past four days he has averaged more than three hours sleep in the twenty-four. He has been in constant touch by telegraph with the convention and with great frequency has been called upon to give instant decisions in matters of great importance. With no wish to dominate the actions of his friends at Denver, he has constantly been asked by them for guidance. Mr. Bryan has maintained a cheerful equanimity of temper, clearness of mind and a vigor of action, which bespeaks perfect health. The past twenty-four hours were fruitful of developments. The platform was adopted, Mr. Bryan was nominated and the second place on the ticket filled by the nomination of Mr. J. W. Kern of Indiana.

Nomination Pleases Bryan.

When he received the news of the nomination of Mr. J. W. Kern for vice president, Mr. Bryan said that his views on the nomination could best be expressed in the telegram which he sent to Mr. Kern. He is not only pleased with the nomination, but pleased that it was made with such unanimity. There were a number of persons whom he counted as available and Kern was always included in this list. Mr. Kern and Mr. Bryan have been political and personal friends for many years. The following is Mr. Bryan's telegram to Mr. Kern:

"Accept my warmest congratulations. Your nomination gratifies me very much. We have a splendid platform and I am glad to have a running mate in such complete harmony with the platform. Stop off and see me on your way East."

An all night session was held at Fairview by Mr. Bryan, a few personal friends and a number of newspaper men. During the long hours, while waiting for the reading of the platform and the balloting on the nomination for president, Mr. Bryan, throwing off the accumulated fatigue of the three previous days, held all listeners in close attention by the repetition of story after story suggested by the incoming news from the auditorium at Denver. It was full daylight when, after receiving the congratulations of those present, and drinking of unfermented grape juice, he retired to snatch a few hours rest.

At 7 o'clock he was up and about, for the straggling advance guard of enthusiastic Lincoln citizens calling to pay their respects was already arriving. At 10 o'clock by trolley, by automobile, by wagon and on foot, the crowd arrived, the Lincoln-Bryan club among them and headed by a brass band. It was a wild and enthusiastic crowd reflecting in no small degree the delicious enthusiasm of the convention. When the band played "A Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight," there were many voices in the crowd, that numbered fully 2,000, which took up the chorus.

Congratulate the Candidate.

"Lapoloma," which, in Spanish means "The Dove," and is one of Mr. Bryan's favorite pieces of music, was played as Mr. Bryan appeared. The crowd surged up against the front steps and against the hideous Korean lions, eager to shake Mr. Bryan's hand and offer him congratulations. They were Mr. Bryan's fellow townsmen, and a great many of them he knew by their first names.

"Hello, Buck," "How are you Bud?" "Glad to see you Doc," said Mr. Bryan as he shook first one hand and then another. Mrs. Bryan greeted many of her friends. The homage of the people he had known for so many years, many of them opposed to him in politics, affected Mr. Bryan to a degree, which he did not show, even at receiving news of the record-breaking demonstration made by the delegates in the Colorado capital.

From the doorstep he addressed them with much feeling, his voice trembled and the moisture came to Judge Taft Discusses Subject With His Manager—Strict Compliance With the New York Law the Chief Topic.

Hot Springs, Va., July 11.—That the publicity of campaign funds is to be made a feature of the coming campaign has been made very clear here. Mr. Taft had extended talks with Chairman Hitchcock and with George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the national committee, who has arrived here, and the necessity for the strictest possible compliance with the New York law in relation to the publicity of campaign funds of the national committee was the chief topic.

Referring to suggestions that the Republican party might receive funds outside of New York and not include them in the report of the national treasurer, Mr. Taft replied promptly that it was possible to commit perjury in such a case, but he scouted the idea that the purpose of giving publicity to the funds of the party in the coming national campaign is not entirely sincere. Mr. Sheldon also declared that the New York law in respect to all the funds that come to the national committee in whatever state they may be collected will be published with the names of the donors. Mr. Sheldon said he believed money for campaign purposes would be very "tight" this year, but he did not believe the publicity of campaign funds would lessen the amount contributed. He declared that compliance with the law in this respect would dispel the popular idea that a vast amount of money is spent in national campaigns.

GROVER CLEVELAND'S WILL

Leaves Main Portion of His Estate to His Widow.

Trenton, N. J., July 11.—The will of ex-President Grover Cleveland has been probated. The probating took place at the home of Mrs. Cleveland in Princeton. Surrogate John W. Cornell went there for that purpose. Mr. Cornell did this out of consideration for Mrs. Cleveland, who did not care to come to the courthouse at Trenton. Mrs. Cleveland arrived in Princeton from New Hampshire Friday.

The will is in Mr. Cleveland's handwriting and makes no disclosures as to the extent of his wealth. After some minor bequests and the creation of a fund of $10,000 for each of the four children, the remainder of the estate is left to Mrs. Cleveland. In the will Mr. Cleveland expresses the desire that he be buried in the place where he should die and that his body be not removed unless it should be absolutely necessary to have it repose by the side of his wife's body.

Witnesses to the will are Professor Andrew F. West of Princeton and Professor John S. Finley, New York city, who were at Princeton and acknowledged to Surrogate Cornell that they witnessed Mr. Cleveland's signature to the document.

Mrs. Cleveland is made executrix and Frank S. Hastings executor under the will.

INTERESTING CONTEST.

Anticipated by the Newspapers of London.

London, July 11.—The London newspapers anticipate an interesting contest for the presidency of the United States. This, they think, will arise not so much from the difference in the platforms of the opposing parties as from the striking personalities of their candidates. Mr. Bryan, having dropped the free silver and other "extreme planks," is regarded as an acceptable candidate, but as likely to stand little chance against "Roosevelt's nominee." His only chance, it is thought here, will be from the support given him by the labor party, but this is expected to be more than balanced by the accession of the business community to Mr. Taft.

The Daily Chronicle regards Mr. Bryan's policy as being the same as that of President Roosevelt, and says that it is only a question of which of the candidates shall be entrusted with its execution. Whoever is the victor, the paper says, he will be a man of high character, marked ability and distinction.

Many trees in the city are left without proper care in this direction and in many instances it has become a nuisance. Shade trees which do not have proper trimming never develop as they otherwise would and their beauty is lost.

FRANK DAY says Lynch did it, and would make it look on the face of things as though there was some disgrace connected with the presenting of Minnesota's candidate. There was not, and if Johnson had been nominated you would not have found Day trying to make the public think he had no finger in the pie.

A HABIT that seems to be general in most towns and which certainly has a hold on the people of Brainerd is that of cutting corners. Let the word be passed around to grown folks as well as children, stay on the sidewalks, don't think that your time is so limited that it is necessary to hurry across lots or across corners to keep pace with father time. The people who have personal pride enough to beautify their premises should be protected from those who seem to think it no offense to trample down the lawn.

NIAGARA WHIRLPOOL BOATING

Russian Inventor to Try His Water Skip in Famous Rapids.

Vassily Rebikoff, who has a "pneumatic boat" that he believes can navigate the most turbulent waters in the world and who has been experimenting with it in roaring streams in Europe recently arrived at New York. His boat is twelve feet long, three feet beam and draws only three-quarters of an inch. It is propelled by a motor and instead of going through the water skips over it. Mr. Rebikoff says that while he was demonstrating what the boat could do in Germany somebody said he knew a bit of water that Rebikoff would not venture in and that was the whirlpool rapids at Niagara.

Rebikoff straightway began to pack his things for America. His friend, the Baron Bonkorwin of the Austrian army, who, like Mr. Rebikoff, is an expert aeronaut, met him at the pier. Mr. Rebikoff has invented a torpedo that he thinks he can control by wireless. He was unwilling to talk about that subject. But he surely is going to try to skim the whirlpool.

Though Emperor William of Germany owns sixty private railway cars, a complete new train is now being built for him. A specially designed car is to be the kaiser's workroom or writing cabinet. There will be a great desk, and shelves on the walls will contain a good sized library. The new imperial sleeping car will have separate accommodations for both the emperor and the empress, each with an anteroom for the valet or chamber woman on duty.

ter skips over it. Mr. Rebkoff says that while he was demonstrating what the boat could do in Germany somebody said he knew a bit of water that Rebkoff would not venture in and that was the whirlpool rapids at Niagara.

Rebkoff straightway began to pack
his things for America. His friend, the Baron Bonkorwin of the Austrian army, who, like Mr. Rebkoff, is an expert aeronaut, met him at the pier
Mr. Rebkoff has invented a torpedo about that subject. But he surely is going to try to skim the whirlpool.

The Kaiser's New Train.

Though Emperor William of Germany owns sixty private railway cars,
a complete new train is now being built for him. A specially designed car is to be the kaiser's workroom or writing cabinet. There will be a great desk, and shelves on the walls will contain a good sized library. The new imperial sleeping car will have separate accommodations for both the emperor and the empress, each with an anteroom for the valet or chamber woman on duty.

Mrs. Duff (to new maid)—But, Mary,
there are only two in the family, Mr.
Duff and myself. Why have you set places for three?

it was the cook that told me you had a planer player in the house.—Harper's

Citizens Generally

On Monday evening, July 13, the faculty of the Summer School will give a reception to the students of the

An excellent program has been arranged. Dr. Lyman B. Sperry, of Oberlin,

Sperry is an eloquent orator and well worth hearing. Mr. Linden, of Pine River, a member of the Cass county

the program. The young ladies of the school will have something interesting going on after the lecture.

OLD SETTLER GONE

John Miller, a Resident of Crow Wing
County Since 1884, Passed Away Last Evening

John Miller, 1519 South Seventh

Catherine Meyers, who survives him.

CALE STOCK TO BE SOLD JULY 21

Referee has Ordered it Sold at 10 O'clock on That Day in
City of Brainerd

VARIOUS BIDS TO BE RECEIVED

On Stocks Separately and as a Whole and Sale to be Confirmed by Referee

Copies of the order of the referee in bankruptcy ordering the sale of the Cale stock and fixtures have been received in this city. The sale is ordered to be held at Brainerd at 10 o'clock,
Tuesday, July 21. Bids will be received for the clothing stock, the grocery stock and the dry goods stock,
separately, and also for the fixtures of
each separately, and also for the stocks
as a whole with the entire fixtures.
The sale must be confirmed by the referee and the confirmation of the sale is set for the same day at 7:30 p.
m. in the office of the referee in Du-
uth.

There are several local parties who will bid on a whole or all of the stock and there is said to be quite a strife to secure it.

Thinks it Saved His Life

Lester M. Nelson, of Naples, Maine,
says in a recent letter: "I have used Dr.
King's New Discovery many years, for coughs and colds, and I think it saved
my life. I have found it a reliable remedy for throat and lung complaints, and would not more be without a bottle than
I would be without food." For nearly forty years New Discovery has stood at the head of throat and lung remedies.
As a preventive of pneumonia, and
healer of weak lungs it has no equal.
Sold under guarantee at H. P. Dunn's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

OF UNTOLD VALUE

The Information Contained in This Citizen's Statement is Priceless

The hale, the hearty, the strong cannot afford to toss this paper to one side im-
patiently when they read the following,
but any sufferer in Brainerd who has suffered hours of torture caused by kidney complaint will stand in his own
light if he does not follow the valuable
advice offered here.

Mrs. J. H. Zellers, of 915 Main St., Brainerd, Minn., says: "Before using Doan's Kidney Pills I suffered for six months from my kidneys. The secretions were badly discolored and I also suffered from a heavy pain across the small of my back. A box of Doan's Kidney Pills were procured for me at
H. P. Dunn's drug store, I took them,
and a cure resulted. I can truthfully
say that I have not had a symptom
since. On October 28th, 1904, six years
after giving the above statement, Mrs.
Zellers said: "I am just as pleased to
recommend Doan's Kidney Pills today
as I was in 1898. I have not had an attack of kidney trouble since they cured me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50
cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo,
New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and
take no other.

Burglar Sent to Prison.

Fairmont, Minn., July 11.—John H.
Arthur, held to the grand jury for participating in the burglary of the People's State bank at Monterey, in this county, and incarcerated in the county jail the past three months, appeared before Judge Quinn in chambers with his counsel and entered a voluntary plea of guilty of burglary in the third degree. The court gave Arthur a sentence of five years in the state prison, the full penalty under
the law.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve Wins.

Tom Moore, of Rural Route 1, Coch-
ran, Ga., writes: "I had a bad sore

til I applied Bucklin's Arnica Salve.
Less than half of a 25 cent box won the
day for me by affecting a perfect cure."

PREDICTS BIG TAFT VICTORY

H. L. Overstreet, Asst. Chief Clerk
National House of Representatives Here

TALKS OF THE TICKETS

Says Kerns Has No Strength
While Sherman Will Make
New York Republican

H. L. Overstreet, assistant chief
clerk of the national house of representatives, was in the city today accompanied by Mrs. Overstreet and their daughter Dorothy. They are enroute to Sol Markee's place on Pelican
lake, where they will spend the next two months. They came up over the great lakes and Mr. Overstreet had seen little of the proceedings of the Denver convention. He had no hesitancy in predicting a republican victory, however. Mr. Overstreet is an Indiana man, coming from Indianapolis, the home of Mr. Kerns, the democratic presidential nominee. He says he will add nothing to the strength of their ticket. He has never held any elective
office of any importance in state or nation and has not been a successful politician. He declares Indiana safely republican. On the other hand he says Congressman Sherman is a man who has a large influence in New York and
will put that state in the Taft column
by a large majority.

BASE BALL NOTES

Team	Played	Won	Lost	Pctg
N. P. Office	9	7	2	.777
North Star Jr.	9	7	2	.777
Y. M. C. A.	9	5	4	.555
N. E. Brainerd	9	4	5	.444
South Side	9	3	6	.333
Crescents	9	1	8	.111

The game between the N. P. and North Star Jr. teams last evening was
naturally expected to be a very close
game but certainly proved to be another batting feast for the North Star
Jrs.

There was a great deal of sentiment
in favor of the North Star Jrs. winning last night's game as that would tie the two teams for first place and
now there will be more excitement over
the final outcome.

In the first of the fourth inning
"Nick" Rossini was hit by an out
drop on the side of the head and he is lucky to not be in a hospital ward as a result; he showed pluck, however, by going in the box again to pitch when
his side was retired.

The percentage column is sure a freak now. Score by innings:

North Star Jrs. 4 2 5 4 x—15
N. P. 0 0 0 0 1—1

Bases on balls: off Curry, 2; off Rossini, 0; off Alderman, 2; two-base hit, Sheffo; three base hit, Parker; double
play, Bush to Paine to Erickson; struck
out: by Curry, 5; by Rossini, 4; by Alderman, 4. Hits off Curry, 5; off Rossini, 6; off Alderman, 2. Thirty-three men faced Curry and Rossini in four
and one-half innings; 19 men faced Alderman in five innings. Umpires T.
Templeton and Sundberg; scorer Man-
ville; time of game 1 hour and 15 minutes.

The next game is scheduled for next
Monday night, July 13, between the N.
P. and Crescent teams; the Crescents
are trying to take a brace for that
game and will be on deck to play.

Delicious Banana Cream

This recipe is highly recommended by one of our correspondents. Try it for dessert tomorrow.
Peel five large bananas, rub smooth with five teaspoonsful of sugar. Add one teaspoon sweet cream beaten to a stiff froth, then add one 10c
package of Lemon JELL-O dissolved in 1½ teaspoons boiling water. Pour into mold and when cold garnish with candied cherries. Served with whipped cream, or any good pudding sauce.
JELL-O is sold by all Grocers at 10c a package.

man uses when she has to give her real age."

AUTO HIT BY A TRAIN.

Brooklyn Man and His Wife Killed in Accident.

New York, July 11.—Emerging from
a sunken roadway where the sound of
an approaching train could not be heard, an automobile carrying W. R.
Hutchings of Brooklyn, his wife and
daughter, and a chauffeur, was run
down by a Long Island express train
at Center Noriches, L. I. The occupants were hurled from the machine
for over 100 feet into the field that adjoins the railroad. Mrs. Hutchings
was dead when found and her husband died later of his injuries. Lillian Hutchings, the daughter, was seriously injured. The chauffeur was unhurt.

Woman Accused of Murder.

Muscantine, Ia., July 11.—Mrs. Mary Rose of Muscantine has been arrested
at Peoria, charged with the murder
of Miss Bertha McIntz, a pretty seventeen-year-old girl of this city, whose
body was found floating in the Mississippi. The body was found lying on a sand bar, and showed traces of foul play, the throat being cut and
the head crushed. Mrs. Rose claims
the girl was kicked in the head by a mule and that she was afraid to tell
the authorities.

WIFE SICK SIX YEARS.

When the wife is sick everything goes wrong in the family. Then is when we appreciate a remedy that restores "mother" to her thousand and one places of need. A Minneapolis man speaks from his own knowledge
when he writes us:

"My wife has been afflicted with a very severe case of rheumatism in her lower limbs for the past six years.
We tried several doctors as well as remedies but without effect.

"Your great Blood and Rheumatism Cure, 6088, was recommended to me by a friend whom it had cured. She tried it, and after using a couple of bottles of the remedy she is about free from any rheumatic trouble.

"I cheerfully recommend it to anyone who is suffering with rheumatism."

Referee has Ordered it Sold at 10 O'clock on That Day in
City of Brainerd

VARIOUS BIDS TO BE RECEIVED

On Stocks Separately and as a Whole and Sale to be Con-
firmed by Referee

Copies of the order of the referee in
bankruptcy ordering the sale of the Cale stock and fixtures have been received in this city. The sale is ordered
to be held at Brainerd at 10 o'clock,
Tuesday, July 21. Bids will be received for the clothing stock, the grocery stock and the dry goods stock,
separately, and also for the fixtures of
each separately, and also for the stocks

The sale must be confirmed by the

sale is set for the same day at 7:30 p.
m. in the office of the referee in Du-
uth.

There are several local parties who

secure it.

Thinks it Saved His Life

Lester M. Nelson, of Naples, Maine,
says in a recent letter: "I have used Dr.
King's New Discovery many years, for
coughs and colds, and I think it saved
my life. I have found it a reliable remedy for throat and lung complaints, and would not more be without a bottle than
I would be without food." For nearly
forty years New Discovery has stood at
the head of throat and lung remedies.
As a preventive of pneumonia, and
healer of weak lungs it has no equal.

drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

The Information Contained in This
Citizen's Statement is
Priceless

The hale, the hearty, the strong cannot
afford to toss this paper to one side im-
patiently when they read the following,
but any sufferer in Brainerd who has
suffered hours of torture caused by
kidney complaint will stand in his own
light if he does not follow the valuable
advice offered here.

Mrs. J. H. Zellers, of 915 Main St., Brainerd, Minn., says: "Before using
Doan's Kidney Pills I suffered for six months from my kidneys. The secretions were badly discolored and I also suffered from a heavy pain across the
small of my back. A box of Doan's Kidney Pills were procured for me at
H. P. Dunn's drug store, I took them,
and a cure resulted. I can truthfully
say that I have not had a symptom
since. On October 28th, 1904, six years
after giving the above statement, Mrs.
Zellers said: "I am just as pleased to
recommend Doan's Kidney Pills today
as I was in 1898. I have not had an attack of kidney trouble since they cured me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50
cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo,
New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doans—and
take no other.

Fairmont, Minn., July 11.—John H.
Arthur, held to the grand jury for
participating in the burglary of the People's State bank at Monterey, in
this county, and incarcerated in the
county jail the past three months, appeared before Judge Quinn in chambers with his counsel and entered a
voluntary plea of guilty of burglary in
the third degree. The court gave Arthur a sentence of five years in the
state prison, the full penalty under
the law.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve Wins.

Tom Moore, of Rural Route 1, Coch-
ran, Ga., writes: "I had a bad sore
come on the instep of my foot and could find nothing that would heal it until I applied Bucklin's Arnica Salve.
Less than half of a 25 cent box won the
day for me by affecting a perfect cure."

Says Kerns Has No Strength
While Sherman Will Make
New York Republican

H. L. Overstreet, assistant chief
clerk of the national house of representatives, was in the city today accompanied by Mrs. Overstreet and
their daughter Dorothy. They are enroute to Sol Markee's place on Pelican
lake, where they will spend the next
two months. They came up over the great lakes and Mr. Overstreet had
seen little of the proceedings of the Denver convention. He had no hesitancy in predicting a republican victory, however. Mr. Overstreet is an Indiana
man, coming from Indianapolis, the
home of Mr. Kerns, the democratic presidential nominee. He says he will
add nothing to the strength of their
office of any importance in state or nation and has not been a successful politician. He declares Indiana safely republican. On the other hand he says
Congressman Sherman is a man who
has a large influence in New York and
will put that state in the Taft column
by a large majority.

The game between the N. P. and North Star Jr. teams last evening was
naturally expected to be a very close
game but certainly proved to be an-
other batting feast for the North Star
Jrs.

There was a great deal of sentiment
in favor of the North Star Jrs. winning last night's game as that would
tie the two teams for first place and
now there will be more excitement over
the final outcome.

In the first of the fourth inning
"Nick" Rossini was hit by an out
drop on the side of the head and he is
lucky to not be in a hospital ward as a result; he showed pluck, however, by
going in the box again to pitch when
his side was retired.

The percentage column is sure a
freak now. Score by innings:
North Star Jrs.....4 2 5 4 x—15
N. P.....0 0 0 1—1

Bases on balls: off Curry, 2; off Ros-
sini, 0; off Alderman, 2; two-base hit,
Sheffo; three base hit, Parker; double
play, Bush to Paine to Erickson; struck
out by Curry, 5; by Rossini, 4; by Alderman, 4. Hits off Curry, 5; off Rossini, 6; off Alderman, 2. Thirty-three men faced Curry and Rossini in four
and one-half innings; 19 men faced Alderman in five innings. Umpires T.
Templeton and Sundberg; scorer Man-
ville; time of game 1 hour and 15 minutes.

The next game is scheduled for next
Monday night, July 13, between the N.
P. and Crescent teams; the Crescents
are trying to take a brace for that
game and will be on deck to play.

Delicious Banana Cream

This recipe is highly recommended by one of
our correspondents: Try it for dessert tomorrow.
Peel five large bananas, rub smooth with five teaspoonfuls of sugar. Add one teaspoon sweet cream beaten to a stiff froth, then add one 10c
package of Lemon JELL-O dissolved in 1½ teaspoons boiling water. Pour into mold and when cold garnish with candied cherries. Served with whipped cream, or any good pudding sauce.
JELL-O is sold by all Grocers at 10c a package.

AUTO HIT BY A TRAIN.

Brooklyn Man and His Wife Killed in Accident.

New York, July 11.—Emerging from
a sunken roadway where the sound of
an approaching train could not be
heard, an automobile carrying W. R.
Hutchings of Brooklyn, his wife and
daughter, and a chauffeur, was run
down by a Long Island express train
at Center Noriches, L. I. The occu-
pants were hurled from the machine
for over 100 feet into the field that
adjoins the railroad. Mrs. Hutchings
was dead when found and her husband died later of his injuries. Lillian Hutchings, the daughter, was seriously injured. The chauffeur was un-
hurt.

Woman Accused of Murder.

Muscataine, Ia., July 11.—Mrs. Mary Rose of Muscataine has been arrested
at Peoria, charged with the murder
of Miss Bertha McIntz, a pretty seventeen-year-old girl of this city, whose
body was found floating in the Mississippi. The body was found lying
on a sand bar, and showed traces of
foul play, the throat being cut and
the head crushed. Mrs. Rose claims
the girl was kicked in the head by a
mule and that she was afraid to tell
the authorities.

St. Paul, July 11.—St. Paul suffered from the hottest day of the year, resulting in one death and three prostrations. One fatality due directly to heat was reported in Duluth, one of six men prostrated in Minneapolis. May die, and a Rochester man who took a dip in the river while over-heated died. In addition to these numerous prostrations occurred, and in several places workmen left their tools and sought safety in the shade.

NOISELESS HALL AT DENVER.

Democratic Convention Delegates Will Sit Higher Than Speakers.

The acoustic properties of the new Denver Auditorium, which seats 14,000 persons and in which the Democratic national convention will be held, are pronounced as perfect as in any similar assembly hall in the United States. Actors, singers and orators have been induced to make practical tests of the acoustic values of the great hall, and changes have been made at the suggestion of those who have found defects. As the place is now arranged a speaker using a moderate speaking tone is plainly heard by auditors sitting in any part of the vast building.

The committee in charge of the construction of the Auditorium decided to place the stage for the convention as near the center of the hall as possible. Instead of near one end, as is the custom in such places. This gives the speaker a great advantage, inasmuch as it enables him to use a lower tone of voice than is usually employed in addressing 14,000 people, although he is required to turn his back on part of his audience.

The Denver Auditorium is so constructed that the speaker stands on a lower level than his auditors, and all the air currents passing through the building for ventilating purposes are drawn from directly beneath the platform on which the speakers stand. In this manner every circumstance tends to carry the sounds of the speaker's voice straight to his hearers, so that his lowest tone is more plainly heard than are the strongest efforts of a speaker addressing an audience in a hall constructed in the ordinary way.

The lights used in the convention hall are noiseless. There are immense clusters of incandescent electric lamps. This will obviate the constant spluttering and blinding glare so annoying where arc lights are employed for illumination.

The telegraph instruments in the Auditorium will also be noiseless. Messages will be sent from the press table immediately in front of the presiding officer's desk. The matting on the aisles of the Auditorium and the folding seats with which the place is supplied throughout are selected so that the least noise will result from the movements of the immense crowd that will be present at the sessions of the convention.

CAPTURED BY REBELS.

Fortified Town of Choluteca in Honduras Falls.

Washington, July 11.—Reported confirmation of the dispatch that the Honduran revolutionists have captured the fortified town of Choluteca was brought to the state department by Mr. Ugarte, the minister from Honduras, who was accompanied by Mr. Corea, the minister from Nicaragua. This distinct victory of the revolutionists is a disappointment to the American and Mexican governments, whose officials had hoped the revolutionary movement would soon spend itself and whose advice had indicated an amelioration in the acute situation on the west coast. Mexico and the United States are pressing on the Central American governments the necessity of preserving neutrality at this time in accord with the spirit and letter of last year's Central American conference and favorable responses to that effect have come from all countries with one unimportant exception.

ANECDOTES OF POTTER

Incident at the Episcopal Bishop's Admittance to Manila.

OUTWITTING A FAKE BEGGAR

How the Prelate Palmed Off a Bogus Coin on Him—When He Was Too Late to Preach—Pitied by an Aged Negress.

An officer of the United States army on his return from the Philippines told this story on Bishop Henry Codman Potter, the well known Episcopalian churchman:

When the bishop went out to Manila a few years ago, on his arrival at the islands he was confronted by a formidable list of about thirty questions, which each person who sought admittance to the port was required to answer to the satisfaction of the government officers. The list, prepared by Uncle Sam chiefly for Chinese and native Filipinos, was nevertheless submitted impartially to all comers.

Gravely the bishop, as became his respect of forms, wrote down his name, age, occupation, place of birth. He did not even smile as he wrote "No" opposite the question, "Have you any opium?"

But the last question was too much. A look of mock pain crossed his features. "Must I answer this?" he asked the examiner.

The examiner nodded. And in the space opposite "Are you a polygamist?" the bishop gravely wrote "Not yet."

It is a well known fact that Bishop Potter disapproved of the reckless giving of alms. He had sharp censure for the kind of giving that fosters crime and deceit. He believed in saving alms for the deserving needy.

Somebody relates the story of the bishop being stopped by a street beggar one evening as he was hurrying home. He had never been in too much of a hurry to stop when he thought he might be of use, so he paused, even though he was a hungry man and dinner was awaiting him a long way off. "What's the trouble?" he asked the man.

"Can you help a poor blind man to a night's lodgin'?" began the usual whine. "I haven't a penny in my pocket, sir."

The man was a hearty specimen, with a patch over one eye, the other being closed. The bishop turned his glance for an instant, and when he looked back he saw in one quick instant the hitherto closed eye of the beggar giving a wise wink to a friend who stood beside him.

The bishop dived into his pocket and brought forth a bogus coin that had been passed on him a little while before.

"Don't you think if I give you this my alms will suit your affliction?" he said.

When Bishop Potter was first elected bishop he used often to preach in St. Thomas' church in New York, where he was a great favorite. As it was not always possible for him to fix his appointments so as to be present at the beginning of a service, it was arranged that whenever he found it possible to be present he was to come in at any time in the service and preach. One day, however, he was later than usual. The preacher for the day had already ascended the pulpit, and as the bishop appeared in his vestments at the chancel door in full view of the congregation the choir was singing as the hymn before the sermon:

"Too late, too late! Ye cannot enter now!"

A broad smile spread over the faces of the congregation as the bishop, taking in the situation, retreated as quietly as possible to the vestry room.

A few years ago Bishop Potter performed an ordination ceremony in Staten Island and, as is customary on such occasions, wore a small red hood at the back of his surplice.

An old negro woman was in the congregation as an interested listener. After the ceremony her mistress, who was also present, asked her what she thought of it.

"Well," she replied in a hesitating way, "I liked his speech fast rate, but I feel mighty sorry for dat man. I guess he ain't got no woman to tend to him, has he?" she asked.

On being assured that the bishop was given every possible attention, she replied positively:

"Now, I know better dan dat, 'cause one time when he turned round I saw dat de back of his coat was busted and his red undershirt was showin' through."

Not so long ago Bishop Potter told the following amusing story on himself: "When one has lived for years in America without any special title in ordinary conversation," said the bishop, "it is not easy to become accustomed to being hailed as 'my lord' whenever any service is rendered. During my various trips to Europe I found it impossible to go anywhere or do anything without being 'lorded' right and left. At last I was in a fair way of becoming spoiled when a little occurrence mercifully delivered me. I had reached home after a run abroad and while descending the gangplank met a friend, an old vestryman of mine. He was hurrying on board to receive his wife and daughters. Pausing midway up the plank, he grasped my hand and shouted: "Why, hellow, blash! How are you?"

AMERICANS IN THE LEAD.

May Win the International Team Match at Bisley.

Bisley, July 11.—The American marksmen made a capital showing in the Olympic games shooting contests. Besides capturing gold and silver medals they also have a useful lead in the international team matches.

Walter Wiens, American, in the shoot-off for the double shot competition at a running deer, won the gold medal with a score of 44 against 41 for Captain Rankin, Englishman, who is acknowledged to be a fine marksman.

In the 300-meter individual match Lieutenant Semon, with a score of 886, won the silver medal, losing the gold one for the event by only a few points to the Norwegian, Helgerud. Wallingford, an Englishman, won the bronze medal.

The chief interest of the day naturally centered in the international team match, in which the Americans have the top score at the three ranges—the 200 yards, 500 yards and 600 yards—which comprise the first half of this contest. The other three ranges are yet to be shot over and the winners, besides being awarded the coveted gold medals, will be acclaimed as the champion marksmen of the world. When the teams left the butts, the American team led with a score of 1,291, with England second with 1,281, and Sweden third with 1,229.

In the individual revolver match Van Aelbroek, a Belgian, led with a score of 490, with his countryman, Storms, in second place with 487. Gorman, the San Franciscan, scored 455 and Axtel, another American, 450.

Johnson Not Disappointed.

St. Paul, July 11.—"I'm not heart-broken," said Governor Johnson in discussing the action of the Democratic national convention in nominating Bryan for president. "I am not disappointed. I had schooled myself to believe that there was only a chance of my nomination. I expected more votes, but the number was cut down on account of the handwagon excitement." Governor Johnson wired Mr. Bryan, pledging his support to the Nebraskan.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Queen Marie Amelle, widow of King Carlos of Portugal, has quite recovered from her recent illness.

Dispatches to Dun's Trade Review indicate a little better trade situation and more promptness in collections.

A report is in circulation in London that Lord Clancarty will marry a Mrs. Marcus, widow of a wealthy American banker.

Stanley Ketchell and Hugo Kelly have been matched to fight twenty rounds on July 31 in San Francisco for the middleweight championship of the world.

CHARGED WITH BRIBERY.

Prominent and Wealthy Contractor Arrested.

Louisville, Ky., July 11.—A dramatic denunciation by a member of the board of aldermen in full meeting was followed by the arrest of Lee Figg, a prominent and wealthy contractor, on the charge of bribery. Alderman C. A. Hess, chairman of a committee having in charge the paving contracts of the city, astonished the board by telling them that Figg had offered him $500 to make a favorable report on certain contracts. The offer had been made earlier in the day, and had been clinched in the aldermanic chamber only when Figg had given Hess a valuable diamond ring, the jewel to be redeemed for $500. Figg was in the chamber at the time he was denounced and was immediately arrested. He gave bond in the sum of $5,000. He declared that every word of Hess' statement was false.

Cures Woman's Weaknesses.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Fyfe one of the Editorial Staff of THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Holcus Dioclis) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator * * * makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." He continues "In Helonias we have a medicinal which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is wisdom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root). Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhoea; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women; constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhoea (suppressed or absent monthly periods), arising from or accompanying an atonic condition of the digestive organs and aemic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonias, and the medicinal properties of which it most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says:

"It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions * * * and general enfeeblement, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root:

"In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal:

Met in Minnesota.

St. Paul, July 11.—St. Paul suffered from the hottest day of the year, resulting in one death and three prostrations. One fatality due directly to heat was reported in Duluth, one of six men prostrated in Minneapolis may die, and a Rochester man who took a dip in the river while over-boated died. In addition to these numerous prostrations occurred, and in several places workmen left their tools and sought safety in the shade.

Headquarters in the West.

Washington, July 11.—To expedite and economize the work of administering the national forests, the bureau of forestry will establish about Oct. 1, next, field headquarters in the West. The clerical force here will be somewhat reduced, many being needed to carry on the proposed work in the West. Headquarters of forest districts will not be changed.

Now doth sweet summer dream his sweetest dream.
With full fringed lids half closed against the sun
And thirsting lips, she nods beneath the stream
Within whose silent bed no waters run.
Full wearily she stretches out her limbs
Anon her breast is stirred with languid sighs.
Lulled by the murmur of slow forest hymns,
She draws the shadows with her drowsing eyes.
And all above her busy hands have made A woven covert of green boughs that keep
The semblance of a painted arch whose shade
Falls on the ground like an enchanted sleep.

NOISELESS HALL AT DENVER.

Democratic Convention Delegates Will Sit Higher Than Speakers.

The acoustic properties of the new Denver Auditorium, which seats 14,000 persons and in which the Democratic national convention will be held, are pronounced as perfect as in any similar assembly hall in the United States. Actors, singers and orators have been induced to make practical tests of the acoustic values of the great hall, and changes have been made at the suggestion of those who have found defects. As the place is now arranged a speaker using a moderate speaking tone is plainly heard by auditors sitting in any part of the vast building.

The committee in charge of the construction of the Auditorium decided to place the stage for the convention as near the center of the hall as possible, instead of near one end, as is the custom in such places. This gives the speaker a great advantage, inasmuch as it enables him to use a lower tone of voice than is usually employed in addressing 14,000 people, although he is required to turn his back on part of his audience.

The Denver Auditorium is so constructed that the speaker stands on a lower level than his auditors, and all the air currents passing through the building for ventilating purposes are drawn from directly beneath the platform on which the speakers stand. In this manner every circumstance tends to carry the sounds of the speaker's voice straight to his hearers, so that his lowest tone is more plainly heard than are the strongest efforts of a speaker addressing an audience in a hall constructed in the ordinary way.

The lights used in the convention hall are noiseless. They are immense clusters of incandescent electric lamps. This will obviate the constant sputtering and blinding glare so annoying where arc lights are employed for illumination.

The telegraph instruments in the Auditorium will also be noiseless. Messages will be sent from the press table immediately in front of the presiding officer's desk. The matting on the aisles of the Auditorium and the folding seats with which the place is supplied throughout are selected so that the least noise will result from the movements of the immense crowd that will be present at the sessions of the convention.

CAPTURED BY REBELS.

Fortified Town of Choluteca in Honduras Falls.

Washington, July 11.—Reported confirmation of the dispatch that the Honduran revolutionists have captured the fortified town of Choluteca was brought to the state department by Mr. Ugarte, the minister from Honduras, who was accompanied by Mr. Corea, the minister from Nicaragua. This distinct victory of the revolutionists is a disappointment to the American and Mexican governments, whose officials had hoped the revolutionary movement would soon spend itself and whose advice have indicated an amelioration in the acute situation on the west coast. Mexico and the United States are pressing on the Central American governments the necessity of preserving neutrality at this time in accord with the spirit and letter of last year's Central American conference and favorable responses to that effect have come from all countries with one unimportant exception.

Incident at the Episcopal Bishop's Admittance to Manila.

OUTWITTING A FAKE BEGGAR

How the Prelate Palmed Off a Bogus Coin on Him—When He Was Too Late to Preach—Pitied by an Aged Negress.

An officer of the United States army on his return from the Philippines told this story on Bishop Henry Codman Potter, the well known Episcopalian churchman:

When the bishop went out to Manila a few years ago, on his arrival at the islands he was confronted by a formidable list of about thirty questions, which each person who sought admittance to the port was required to answer to the satisfaction of the government officers. The list, prepared by Uncle Sam chiefly for Chinese and native Filipinos, was nevertheless submitted impartially to all comers.

Gravely the bishop, as became his respect of forms, wrote down his name, age, occupation, place of birth. He did not even smile as he wrote "No" opposite the question, "Have you any opium?"

But the last question was too much. A look of mock pain crossed his features.

"Must I answer this?" he asked the examiner.

The examiner nodded. And in the space opposite "Are you a polygamist?" the bishop gravely wrote "Not yet."

It is a well known fact that Bishop Potter disapproved of the reckless giving of alms. He had sharp censure for the kind of giving that fosters crime and deceit. He believed in saving alms for the deserving needy.

Somebody relates the story of the bishop being stopped by a street beggar one evening as he was hurrying home. He had never been in too much of a hurry to stop when he thought he might be of use, so he paused, even though he was a hungry man and dinner was awaiting him a long way off. "What's the trouble?" he asked the man.

"Can you help a poor blind man to a night's lodgin'?" began the usual whine. "I haven't a penny in my pocket, sir."

The man was a hearty specimen, with a patch over one eye, the other being closed. The bishop turned his glance for an instant, and when he looked back he saw in one quick instant the hitherto closed eye of the beggar giving a wise wink to a friend who stood beside him.

The bishop dived into his pocket and brought forth a bogus coin that had been passed on him a little while before.

"Don't you think if I give you this my alms will suit your affliction?" he said.

When Bishop Potter was first elected bishop he used often to preach in St. Thomas' church in New York, where he was a great favorite. As it was not always possible for him to fix his appointments so as to be present at the beginning of a service, it was arranged that whenever he found it possible to be present he was to come in at any time in the service and preach. One day, however, he was later than usual. The preacher for the day had already ascended the pulpit, and as the bishop appeared in his vestments at the chancel door in full view of the congregation the choir was singing the hymn before the sermon:

"Too late, too late! Ye cannot enter now!"

A broad smile spread over the faces of the congregation as the bishop, taking in the situation, retreated as quietly as possible to the vestry room.

A few years ago Bishop Potter performed an ordination ceremony in Staten Island and, as is customary on such occasions, wore a small red hood at the back of his surplice.

An old negro woman was in the congregation as an interested listener. After the ceremony her mistress, who was also present, asked her what she thought of it.

"Well," she replied in a hesitating way, "I liked his speech fast rate, but I feel mighty sorry for dat man. I guess he ain't got no woman to tend to him, has he?" she asked.

On being assured that the bishop was given every possible attention, she replied positively:

"Now, I know better dan dat, 'cause one time when he turned round I saw dat de back of his coat was busted and his red undershirt was showin' through."

Not so long ago Bishop Potter told the following amusing story on himself: "When one has lived for years in America without any special title in ordinary conversation," said the bishop, "it is not easy to become accustomed to being hailed as 'my lord' whenever any service is rendered.
